A.R.E. & Atlantic University wanted to show our gratitude.

Everyone here at the A.R.E./AU wanted to say, THANK YOU! So we made you a fun little video. We are truly grateful for your continued commitment to the A.R.E./AU. Your donations support the programs you know and love, like A.R.E. Camp, the Prison Outreach program, Study Groups, the A.R.E. Library, Prayer and Meditation, and the list goes on.

All of us at the A.R.E. wanted to show our gratitude.

Please enjoy your video!

An AU Student Retrospective

Atlantic University graduate, Jim Pyra wrote an article detailing his journey through his studies. Throughout all of his up and downs while a student, Jim stayed on track and completed his degree earlier this year.

You can read his article on page 54 of the newest edition of Venture Inward, or download a digital copy from the member's only section on the Edgar Cayce website.

New Database for Atlantic University

Through a generous donation, Atlantic University will receive a new database. This database is a desperately needed upgrade to all of the older systems that are now in use. With this upgrade, the University will be able to streamline procedures and improve systems, thus creating efficiencies in area where blockages were occurring. Also, students will be able to log into their own accounts to view and retrieve vital financial and academic information. It is estimated that this project will complete by the first of the year.

Online Creativity and Writing Group

Writers! You are invited to join the Facebook group, "Creativity and Writing Group of Current and Former AU Students."

In this group, you can share your creative goals and successes, announce your newest publications, and ask for advice about writing and publishing. This Facebook group is open to all current Atlantic University students as well as graduates.
